Enforcement

Please note that Regulation 69 of the Regulations outlines certain criminal offences, including under Regulation 69(1)(d), that it is an offence to fail to comply with or contravene a condition of a registration. SEPA may take enforcement action for any non-compliance in line with its Enforcement Policy and Guidance (copies of which are available on SEPA's website). This includes potential prosecution which is punishable on conviction by a fine or imprisonment, or both.

Please note that, directors, managers, partners and other individuals involved in a body corporate, partnership or other unincorporated association (or an individual purporting to act in any such capacity) may be held personally liable for offences under the Regulations.

Notes

1. Anyone involved in carrying on the authorised activity should be made aware of the conditions of this registration. It is an offence, under Regulation 69(1)(b) of the Regulations, for an authorised person to fail to ensure that the authorised activity is carried on in compliance with the registration.
2. An annual charge may be payable in respect of this registration in terms of the current Charging Scheme, copies of which can be found on the SEPA website. Where an annual charge is payable, an invoice will be sent to you.
3. SEPA may revise the standard conditions referred to in the registration at any time. SEPA will first consult any persons it considers appropriate, unless the revisions only make minor administrative changes. SEPA will inform you of any proposed revisions, ahead of publishing the revised conditions. Part 7 of the Regulations provides further information.
4. Information on how to apply to vary, transfer or surrender your registration, including application forms and application fees, can be found on the SEPA website.
5. This registration does not disapply any other statutory requirements applicable to you or your operations, for example, any need to obtain planning permission or a building warrant, or any responsibilities under legislation for health, safety and welfare in the workplace.
6. Subject to the exclusions provided for under Part 8 of the Regulations (information and publicity), information relating to the registration may be made publicly available in accordance with Regulation 38 of the Regulations.
